5th Conference on Innovation, Sustainability and Regeneration

29-30 October 2025, Porto, Portugal

The INSURE.Hub, a collaboration between Universidade Católica Portuguesa (UCP) through Católica Porto Business School and the Faculty of Biotechnology, and Planetiers New Generation, is hosting the 5th International Conference on Innovation, Sustainability, and Regeneration. This event will take place on the UCP Porto campus on October 29-30, 2025.

The conference aims to unite students, researchers, and industry professionals to discuss various topics related to innovation, sustainability, and regeneration. Unique in its multidisciplinary and systemic approach, the INSURE.Hub Conference bridges the gap between academia and the business world.

Participants can expect a dynamic and stimulating environment centered on sustainability. The conference will feature keynote sessions, parallel sessions, round tables, company use cases and stands, as well as poster displays. Specialized workshops and training sessions will be available, requiring pre-registration. Additionally, there will be competitions and prizes for the best abstract/paper presentations and company case studies.

Call for abstracts

We invite submissions of high-quality and original research or case studies on the following topics, among others:

- Innovation and business transformation
- Circular economy
- Bioeconomy
- Leadership and governance for sustainability
- Sustainable business strategy
- Social entrepreneurship and responsible business
- Sustainability literacy and education
- Sustainable investment and financing
- Challenges due to the impact of climate change
